HIGH SCHOOL
OHIO
OHIO

This is the story of Wooster High. Here is pictured all the excitement, success, good times, and disappointments that go along with an education.

The worn steps in the main hall, the messy lockers, the tough exams and low grades, the good assemblies and class room discussions, the stiff muscles from gym class, the choosing of class sweaters and rings, the exchanging of friendship pictures, the jokes and chatter between classes, the excitement of football, basketball, and baseball games, the Prom—all are memories of our high school days. Most of all we remember the wonderful friendships that we have made here.

Yes, all this we leave to you. This IS Wooster High . . . . . .

MR. H. DON SCOTT

OUR PRINCIPAL

As friend and counselor, Mr. H. Don Scott is familiar to every student at Wooster High School.

A graduate of Muskingum, he had taught in both Manchester and Marysville, Ohio, and served as principal of Kirkerville High School before coming to Wooster in the fall of 1951. Since then, Mr. Scott has shown a great interest in both the student body and the school.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

Capably handling the supervision of all the city schools, Mr. Bodenbender finds time to take a special interest in students and activities in the high school. An ardent General fan, he is always seen rooting for Wooster.

Mr. Bodenbender likes people and likes to work with them. When asked about Wooster High, he replied, "I think we have a grand student body at Wooster with which to work."

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

"To improve, to enlarge and to build" has been the theme of the Board of Education.

The high school cafeteria has been remodeled and new equipment has been purchased. A new department of Speech and Hearing Therapy has been introduced, and the reading program has been enlarged. One acre of land has been added to Layton school. Two new, modern class rooms have been completed at Beall Avenue school. The Board has purchased a tract of land west of the city park as a possible new school site.

The State Superintendent of Schools commended the Board for the fine attitude of the student body and the outstanding work being done by the teaching staff.

The Board also received a letter of congratulations from Mr. James Rhodes, Auditor of the State, for the accurate and worthwhile expenditures of the school funds.

With the future of the students in mind, the Board of Education is looking forward to improving, to enlarging, and to building.

CLASS HISTORY

It all began in 1950—the year when one of the most outstanding groups of young people ever to tread the halls of Wooster High began a high school career together.

Actually, two years of junior high had offered proof of future greatness. Sportswise, the basketball picture was made a little brighter by the Colonels' two-year record of nineteen wins and four losses. The gals, too, (never to be outdone) were making quite a place for themselves on the GAA scene with the figures of Crow and Beeler flitting around the basketball all-star floor away back in the seventh grade. Under the guiding eye of Miss Helm and Mr. Ortiz, the '49 Colonel wrote and compiled all the junior high news with Dave Smith, as editor-in-chief. All in all, the Class of '54 had become a big part of the junior high scene, and we now looked forward in eager anticipation to real high school life.

Freshies we were — with stardust in our eyes. We invaded every "grown-up" high school organization, club, or event with youthful glee, so happy to be at last a part of "more mature" surroundings. Ever present, however, was that feeling of awe when we gazed with longing eyes at the lordly seniors . . .

With the donning of Johnny Reb caps and the cry of "The South will rise again!" the sophomore year was upon us. One of the happiest in all our high school days, we elected our Thrift is a wonderful virtue, especially in ancestors.— Spanish club 3, 4; Hi-Y 4.

THE 1954 CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of 1954, being of sound mind and body, declare this to be our last will and testament by which we leave practically untouched the wisdom of the ages, a fine building, a handsome faculty, some band uniforms and athletic equipment, hundreds of unsoiled and unopened volumes, our 1954 basketball score, and traditions of behavior it would do you well to emulate.

Juanita Yoder bequeath her perpetual emotion to Barb Kelly.

Ronnie Bahn leaves his license with Judge Brenneman.

Bo leaves "Eppie in de tole 'ole."

Cliff Leighty bequeaths his "class room capers" to all the teachers who helped him to teach their classes.

Bill Pearce leaves his thoughts with Barb Hosmer.

Danny Franks wills his "dead eye" to Leo Hanson.

Roger Cook leaves his childhood memories to feature staff.

Bobby Ely bequeaths her style to Dotty Lear.

Herb Mullen wills his faithful playmate, the recorder, to next year's WHSV engineers.

Sue Isch leaves Mr. Pollock de-nationalized.

Wilson Miller leaves his tractor to the rest of the "ag" boys.

Ben leaves his car to anyone brave enough to drive it.

Pat Beeler and Jo Ott leave to join their collegemen.

G. B. Klinger wills his 5th ace to Dick Hall.

Mary Alice leaves her first chair but takes her concerto with her.

Charlotte Lightfoot and Harriet Reich leave a General that can't be equalled.

Marilyn Troyer leaves 88 keys to the music department.

Pam Beeler wills her freckles to Laura Shearer.

Phil Franks leaves his curly locks to Bill Mosher.

Jo leaves her bottle of aspirin to next year's Annual editor.

Alicia Crow leaves a basketball record to be equalled.

John Weaver bequeaths his height to Dick Danner.

Avery leaves his off-the-record comments to the teachers.

Billy Rich leaves between classes with Dick Pagniano close behind.

Ethel Smith wills her brains to be fought over by the underclassmen who need them.

Ann Ports wills her French accent to Mary Cook.

Wolf leaves our country but not our hearts.

Wes leaves his pair of loaded dice to Ann Seymour.

Keith, Ted, Bo, G. B., Paul, Phil, Bill leave the tenor section in a terrible state.

Anga leaves a bad impression on most cars.

Pat Ewing wills his blush to Lynn Zimmerman.

Tim Shutt bequeath her piccolo to Bob Hastings.

Angie leaves the cheering section exhausted.

Dave "Bull Moose" Smith leaves his dad.

The senior football players leave their jerseys behind.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council functions as the student government body of the high school. The Council membership includes one representative from each home room in grades 9-11 and three representatives from each senior home room. During the year the Council discussed many means of improving school conditions.

As in other years, the Council sold Student Activity Tickets, collected Annual orders, managed the magazine campaign, and sponsored the March of Dimes assembly. Council members acted as hall monitors during the noon lunch periods.

Projects of the Council included selling school handbooks and carrying out a school visitation program in which Council members visited several neighboring high schools. The Council also sent four delegates to the State Convention of the Ohio Association of Student Councils. Bill Pearce, Sue Halderman, Becky Wilson, and Larry Martin represented Wooster.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Outstanding scholarship, leadership, service, and character are the qualifications which a student must have to become a member of National Honor Society. To qualify scholastically, he must be in the upper third of his class. He must take part in extra-curricular activities as a leader. A vote of students and faculty is taken during the second semester. Service and character are judged on a point system from these votes.

Fifteen per cent of each class is taken into the society, five per cent during the junior year and ten per cent during the senior year.

In April a very impressive candlelight induction service for new members is conducted by senior members of the society. New members are told of the high ideals of the club and are challenged to strive toward these goals.

THE GENERAL

"Buy your General on sale tonight! Remember—it's still the very most a dime can buy!" Sound familiar? It should . . .

Yes, the seventeenth year of the Wooster High General was completed with sixteen deadlines met and sixteen issues on the market.

During football and track season, the staff took care of planning for the election of two queens to reign over an evening of festivity.

Spring came and nine staff members went to the CSPA convention in New York City. In April members of the General attended the journalism clinic at Kent University.

The last week rolled around—the '54 staff waved a nostalgic goodbye to "the only paper in the world that cares two whoops for Wooster High."

THESPIAN SOCIETY

Members of Soc and Buskin, after earning ten points, are eligible for membership in Thespian Society. At a formal spring banquet, the only meeting of Thespian Society for the year, new members are inducted and seniors are recognized for their service in the organization.

Hard-working Thespians who have achieved thirty additional points are qualified for Honor Thespian and are presented with their pins at the spring banquet.

The club's motto: "Act well your part. There all the honor lies."

BAND

With snappy cadence, bright gold and blue uniforms, white gloves and bucks, the eighty-four piece Wooster General Marching Band high-stepped its way through eight original halftime football shows. Teamwork and outstanding showmanship were shown as the band moved into intricate formations under the lights at Maurer Field and one special appearance at the College of Wooster.

ORCHESTRA

Wooster High School was again gifted with an outstanding group of musicians in the high school orchestra this year. Taking part in the district contest at Kent State University, the orchestra received a rating of excellent, which qualified them for the state contest, where they participated with schools from all over Ohio.

Dressed in formals and white dinner jackets, the orchestra presented its annual concert on April 2.

SENIOR CHOIR

The annual Christmas Sing marked the first big appearance of the Senior Choir this year.

Acting as host, the choir participated in a Choir Festival for the second consecutive year with choirs from four other high schools. Mr. Harry Wilson, famous New York choral director, gave constructive criticism to each choir as well as directing the choirs in mass singing.

In February an all-school Valentine Soc Hop was sponsored by the choir.

FRESHMAN GIRLS' CHORUS

Approximately seventy-six girls under the direction of Miss Constance McPherson enjoyed a very successful year in the Freshman Girls' Chorus.

The chorus gave its initial appearance for the year at the Christmas Sing with Elizabeth Dees as soloist in Ave Maria. Ours Is The World, Waltzing Matilda, and Rantin' Rovin' Robin were a few of the selections which the chorus presented at the Spring Concert.

An ensemble of six girls appeared in a program given for the DAR early in December.

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character" is part of the Tri-Hi-Y pledge. The Tri-Hi-Y clubs, under the guidance of Miss Esther Fausnaugh, Miss Virginia Carson, and Mrs. Rachel Fetzer, began their programs for the year with this purpose in mind.

Girls wishing to join the Tri-Hi-Y clubs were introduced to the ideals and activities of the clubs at the Big-Little Sister picnic. A joint candlelight installation service was held with the three Hi-Y clubs.

Success has marked the three years that members of Senior Hi-Y have spent in the Hi-Y clubs. This club has given many hours of service to the school and community, and in return, the members have benefitted by giving their service.

During their sophomore year the Senior Hi-Y had charge of the ribbon sales. Projects for their junior and senior years included the concessions at basketball tournaments and on special occasions at Maurer Field.

The Senior Hi-Y has sent many boys to camp and to various Y conferences.

NFL

Row 2—Miss Patterson, Mr. Pollock

The 1953-'54 NFL season was a noteworthy one for the local speech department for several reasons. As a chapter, the local group reached the largest enrollment in both membership and degrees in the past five years. This put the Wooster High speakers in first place in Eastern Ohio NFL. Since the Eastern Ohio district ranks first in the nation in speech activities, our attainment is considered quite an honor in forensic circles.

The second major achievement concerned the entry of eight students to the state speech tournament in Columbus. For the third consecutive year, Wooster sent a debate team to the state finals.

The third event worthy of note was that another student qualified for national speech competition in June. Sue Isch, last year's entry, qualified again in girls' extemp.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

To open the season's activities, the French Club joined with the Spanish Club members for a fall picnic in the city park

French Club again joined with Spanish Club for a Christmas party. Entertainment featuring members of both clubs followed the covered-dish dinner.

To fulfill the club's aim of learning more about France and her people, other meetings included movies about the country and programs presented by Miss June Bout, Miss Liliane Camous, and Mr. Henri Meyer of the College of Wooster.

SOCIOS ESPANOLES

Following tradition, Spanish Club started its activities with a joint Spanish-French club picnic.

During the year, Mr. Robert Moore showed colored films of his experiences in Mexico, movies were shown on Guatemala and Mexico, and Miss Lucia Ungaru, a student at the College of Wooster, from Lima, Peru, spoke to the club.

Seniors were honored at a fiesta in the city park which concluded the 1953-54 activities of the Spanish and French Clubs.

MAGNA L

The second-year Latin students continued this year with their club known as "Magna L." Many members participated in the programs which were presented monthly. In one meeting famous characters of Roman history and mythology found themselves confronting a TV panel. Of particular interest was the February meeting at which Miss Sybil Gould of the College of Wooster discussed slides showing the remains of Roman culture in Greece, Italy, and France. These had been taken during her previous year in Europe. Outstanding social events of the year were the Christmas party with its learned debate and the authentic Roman banquet held in the spring.

SOCIETAS ROMANA

Among the events of the year were a play, written and directed by one of our members, and a quiz show in the form of a television broadcast. A talent show was given at the Christmas party in December.

Projects were filling baskets with food and Christmas gifts for two needy families and collecting tax stamps. Both projects proved very successful.

CLIFTON LAYTON CLUB

The Clifton Layton Club is part of a large state and national organization of Future Teachers of America. In recognition of this fact, delegates were sent to Cleveland for the NEOTA convention as ushers and to the state-wide FTA conference in Columbus this April.

Several highlights in the club's activities were installing Rittman's FTA club and promoting Teacher Career Week, which included presenting an assembly, and observing and teaching in the elementary schools for two half days.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

DECA stands for Distributive Education Clubs of America. In this club, merchandising and other important selling factors are discussed. The primary objective of distributive education is to train the individual to participate more efficiently in distribution of goods and service.

The course includes one period of retailing and one period of merchandising information during the first two periods of the day and work on a selling job in a downtown store during the afternoon.

This year the club was very active in raising funds for field trips. They had several cupcake sales and collected sales tax stamps. The money collected from these projects was used in sending the class to a Northeastern Regional Convention at Kent State University. Later in the year the state convention held in the Fort Hayes Hotel at Columbus was attended by four of the members. Members were unable to attend the national convention held in San Antonio, Texas. Other field trips attended by the whole class were a visit to the O'Neil's department store in Akron, a tour through the pottery plant at Fredericksburg, and trips downtown for observation.

FBLA is a national organization whose purpose is to organize business students for a better understanding of office work. The members of FBLA strive to develop the personality traits desirable for a good secretary — dependability, accuracy, courtesy, honesty, and neatness.

Through reports from secretaries and discussions with businessmen, the club endeavors to attain these qualities.

FILMBREAKERS

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Floyd Maurer, Filmbreakers club runs smoothly and performs an important service in the high school. Members of the club not only give up their study halls to run movie projectors and other equipment used in visual education, but also give many hours of service after classes.

Filmbreakers club is open to all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Because of the valuable equipment which they operate, members must be capable and dependable. Experienced members of the club instruct the new members in the use of the visual equipment.

During the extended home room period on Wednesdays, the club meets to discuss problems of mutual interest.

The purpose of the Future Homemakers of America is to promote worthy home membership, democracy in home and community life, wholesome individual and group recreation, and international good will.

To be a member of FHA, a girl must be taking or must have taken a homemaking course in senior high school. This year there were sixty girls interested in home economics and homemaking who joined the club.

During FHA Week in November, some of the officers took part in a program on "Your School Today," a radio program on schools. In December the annual Christmas party and square dance with the FFA was held. In February some of the officers and girls went to Norwayne to install their Chapter. In March the FHA held a square dance for all students in the school in order to earn money to send representatives to the state convention and camp.

The Future Farmers of America have had another busy and successful year, this being the twenty-sixth anniversary of the national organization of Future Farmers of America.

Last spring at the state FFA convention Wilson Miller and Jim Mowery received the degree of state farmer. Bob McCay won the State Agricultural Engineering Contest and also received a scholarship to Ohio State University by being one of the top boys in the Senior Agricultural Scholarship exam. The chapter again won a gold award in the parliamentary procedure contest. Entering the chapter contest for the first time, they received a gold award. Dale Ring was elected state president of the FFA for 1953-1954. As in the past few years the chapter awards some worthy freshman or sophomore boy with a heifer of his choice. This year freshman, Charles Jentes, received the heifer. Wilson Miller received the district banking award of $50.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE STUDENT COUNCIL

At the beginning of the school year students in each seventh and eighth grade section elected a home room representative and an alternate. These twenty members make up the Seventh and Eighth Grade Student Council.

This year the members of the Council helped home room teachers with the sale of the Student Handbook, magazines, SAT's and General and Annual.

Three monitors were on duty every day in the seventh and eighth grade section.

Two of the Council members were fortunate enough to go to Ashland High School on visitation day, and they told of their experiences in a Council meeting.

TRI-HI-Y

Activities during the year included a scavenger hunt, which was organized to collect clothes for needy families. The girls entertained their fathers at a banquet and their mothers at a tea. The groups again sponsored a Christmas formal.

Other programs throughout the year included joint meetings of the senior groups of both Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y. They held three meetings on boy-girl relations. Sponsors of Cotty College in Missouri showed slides on the school to the Tri-Hi-Y clubs and told the girls about it.

Several members attended the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y conference at Alliance and several helped with the Good Friday youth service. Others presented radio programs on the "Y" Hour.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1953 football team had a record that showed the Generals with a five win, three loss, and two tied season. The record has a very good chance of being bettered next year since many under-classmen were in the starting positions this season.

The first game started with the Generals as underdogs to a Dover team which has beaten them in previous years more than they have been beaten. Wooster dumped Dover 27-12. The following week Canton South came to Wooster only to return defeated by a score of 28-13.

Wooster traveled to Berea for the first away game. They overran their opponent 40-13. The second away game at Ravenna proved to be Wooster's first disappointment when the Ravens upset the Generals 20-0. This was one of the very few times Wooster never scored.

For the fifth game Wooster was the guest of Ashland, but the Arrows surprised everyone by winning their first game 13-12. The next week Ashland visited Wooster, and the high-spirited Generals won 37-0.

The battle between Wooster and Wadsworth has always proved a very hard-fought one. The Grizzles were a favored team by at least one touchdown. This was Homecoming at Wooster, and the team celebrated it with a 13-7 victory. For their last home game the Generals met Mt. Vernon with a 0-0 tie.

The last two games were to be away with Orrville the first stop. Wooster was thought to have an easy time, but the Red Riders won 12-6. The last game with Coshocton, who was favored by two touchdowns, was a tough one. It ended in a 13-13 tie and another season completed.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Wooster Generals played a Class "A" schedule for the second year, but lacking experience, they had only a 2-16 record. Wooster scored 950 points with an average of 52.8 points per game. The opponents scored 1206 points and had a 67.0 average for points per game.

There were only two lettermen on the squad this year, co-captains Dan Franks and Pat Ewing. Next year lettermen Dick Schafrath, Leo Hanson, and Chuck Finn will be back.

The highest scorer this year was Senior Dan Franks with 216; Dick Schafrath was a close second with 213 points.

TRACK

The Wooster General track team will run against some very touch competition. Some of these will be Ashland, Massillon, and Mt. Vernon. Few seniors returned this year, thus giving the thinclads a young and inexperienced team. The annual relays at Ashland will again be run this year along with relays at home. As in previous years, the Generals will probably enter the State and District Meets.

SENIOR GAA SPORTSBOARD

The governing body of the GAA is the Sports Board. This board consists of four elected officers and eight appointed sports managers. Their purpose is to promote an active interest in the GAA and its program.

Closely connected with the Sports Board is the "W" association. This is composed of girls who have earned 800 points by participating in various sports. An initiation is held for new members after the Yale-Harvard basketball game, and is followed by a dance sponsored by the "W" girls.

The Leaders Club is composed of girls who assist the physical education instructors in gym classes. This gives experience to girls who are interested in becoming physical education instructors.

The Sports Board participated in many inter-scholastic activities this year. They played basketball with Norwayne on March 24 and Millersburg on March 9. They went to a play-day at Muskingum College March 20, and sponsored one at Wooster on March 27. They also had an intramural play-day.

RIFLE CLUB

The Junior Rifle Club was chartered in 1941 by the Wooster American Legion in order that boys between the ages of fourteen and eighteen might be taught the safe and correct use of firearms.

The club holds its meetings every Thursday evening from seven o'clock to nine in the co-ed room. During the summer the members hold their meetings on an open range west of Wooster. All materials such as rifles, ammunition, and shooting coats are furnished by the Wooster American Legion.

Members of the club may attain the following ranks: promarksman, marksman, marksman first class, sharp shooter, and distinguished rifleman. This year the club participated in several meets. The opposing teams were Ashland and Cuyahoga Fall.

The training has proved very valuable to former members who are now serving in the armed forces.

Rifle Club is directed by A. D. Sigler and Paul McDavitt.

CLASS PROPHECY

Life is a cycle: We remember the past, live the present, and dream of the future. It seems only yesterday that we timidly unlatched the school door for the first time. But very soon the future will become the present as we look back on our senior year with mingled sentiments. What does the future hold for you and your friends? Close your eyes, relax, and picture yourself at our class reunion in 1964. The old "Town and Country" Restaurant has long been torn down, and our dinner is being served in the exclusive dining room of the modern hotel which has replaced our old haunt. It looks as if we've arrived early, you and I. Let's find a point of advantage and watch the people enter.

Oh, look,—here come some of them now. There's Sue Halderman. Just look at that mink coat! Why, it practically drags the floor. I guess she's really got the money. Her last show on Broadway ran for three years. Right behind her is Mary Alice Carroll. She's become the first woman biologist ever employed at Marine Land in Florida. And there's Dave Smith. For heaven's sake, hasn't he changed? Why, he must have put on forty pounds at least. Now he's station manager for WTAM in Cleveland. An hour ago he flew in from a conference in New York just for this banquet.

Hi, Char! Remember Char Lightfoot? I forget the name of the guy she married—some big shot from California. Anyhow, she's associate editor of Madamoiselle now. Shirley Miller! I haven't seen you for an age. I've heard you're advertising manager for Macy's. Gee, that's wonderful! I talked to Jackie Elder yesterday. She likes her job with Capital Airlines tremendously. That trip from Miami to Bermuda with a three day lay over isn't something to be sneezed at.

Say, was I ever surprised to see Cliff Leighty in his new uniform. Remember how he used to drive? Now he's a safe, stolid highway patrolman with a wife and five kids. Not only that, but he's taken Batty's place as driving instructor at the high school.

Speaking of uniforms, you should see Cyn Straub. After all the trouble she had deciding where to go to college, she finally gave up and joined the Waves. Now she's chief secretary to the admiral.

Just look at Betty Kaye. Isn't her husband good looking? It surely is a thrill to have the governor and the state's first lady at our banquet.

Over there in the corner are some fellows I used to know. Ted Crawford, Y.M.C.A. director of C. N. Dodd; Ray Mushock, who's a designer of women's clothes; John Vosteen, who's principal of Warren High School; and John Weaver, who pushes the broom up and down his halls.

Let's go sit down. I guess they're ready to eat. Doesn't the table look beautiful? Juanita Yoder decorated it especially for us. She's head waitress at the Waldorf Astoria dining room, you know. Candle light makes things look queer, doesn't it? It brings out the lines in everyone's faces—lines weren't there ten years ago. Looking at the faces all around me, I think of how these same people looked at our Senior Class banquet. Across from me now—Pat Boyles, bowling pro; Bill Pearce, Mayor of Chicago; Bob McQuigg, line coach from Massillon; Janet Rich, commercial artist; Phil Franks, Spanish professor who has just returned from his latest expedition to Lake Titicaca; Marilyn Troyer, concert pianist; Alicia Crow, just returned from swimming the English Channel; Pat Ewing, sheep rancher from Montana; Connie Diller, first violist in the Philharmonic Orchestra; Bobbie Ely, director of a modeling agency in Los Angeles; and an empty chair for Edna Dix, who is still in Africa as a nurse with the Medical Marine Corps. The glasses are all raised expectantly as Professor Krauss proposes a toast.

"To the Class of '54: May our days be long, our lives be bright, and may every reunion be as happy and satisfying as this one."

first slate of class officers, with Keith Winget and G. B. Klinger as prexy and vice-prexy. Our first big social function of the year was a Confederate Ball in keeping with our newly adopted southern theme. Our guys helped make up the varsity '51 football squad with the talents of "Bo" McQuigg, Billy Pearce, Paul Pinnicks, and Phil Franks bolstering the team. At one of the radio assemblies, two of our class starred as Corliss Archer and Dexter — Charlotte Lightfoot and Dave Smith. A new innovation in entertainment came when Avery Pratt, a fellow Confederate, became the first drum major, and he, along with Miki Schuster and Betty Kaye Fisher, made our class quite well represented in the baton-twirling field. "Angie" Angel became the first of our class to make the varsity cheerleading squad. And so, our sophomore year ended in a dreamy haze of show boats and mint juleps.

Our junior year proved that all was not lost for the class of Rebs. When plans got underway for the biggest prom ever, a Southern Scene was chosen as our theme! The backdrop, depicting a plantation house with its graceful lines, will long be a part of our memories. An all-night after-Prom party made our Prom night by far the most memorable for many a year. More and more, we became a vital part of the high school, with many outstanding classmates in all branches of school activity. Under the guidance of Pat Ewing, president, and Avery Pratt, vice-president, our junior year closed with countless achievements behind us and the promise of many more ahead of us.

The senior year — ah, our last year — arrived and all too soon for the Class of '54. With president "Bo" McQuigg, whose versatility on the gridiron will long be noted, we began our last days at Wooster High. Some of our outstanding celebrities for the senior year were Sue Isch, who earned the opportunity of representing Wooster's NFL at the national contest for second year in a row; Sue Halderman, who reigned as queen at our annual Homecoming football game; the Senior Choir, ensembles, and orchestra, which under the able direction of George K. Nickles gained top positions at the Kent district contests; Dave "Bull Moose" Smith, whose wit and originality founded the successful third party in our Youth-In-Government program; Phyllis Franks, Anne Ports, Ken Kutz, and Gary Dunn, who by their useful contributions to the high school earned the right to attend youth seminars at Washington, D. C., and the U. N.; Harriet Reich and Charlotte Lightfoot, whose high standards of journalism brought the school a newspaper of the highest caliber; and Mary Alice Carroll, whose high scholastic ratings brought honor to our class and to our school.

Oh, there are so many more whose contributions will make them so well-remembered in our hearts always. But, then — this is the last chapter in our book of high school memories. And yet unlike other books — our book of memories will have no ending. We leave this school as we entered — humbly, with a quest for knowledge that shall be a part of us till our days on earth are over.

So, from the bottoms of our hearts, we say "Thanks!" to all of you who have had the faith and vision to believe in us. We will strive always to be worthy of such vision—such faith.

Bob Kirkpatrick leaves with the grace of Miss Rodgers.

Sally Griffith bequeathes her cymbols to Sue Hinsman so that she can get a bigger "bang" out of being a senior next year.

Miki leaves twirling her way to stardom.

Anna Mae Carafelli wills her muscles to next year's wrestlers.

Pattie Boyles bequeaths her cake to the "W" girls.

Cynthia Straub and Anne Shamp leave their swimming pool to Mr. Dodez until next year's acquade.

Bob Emlong leaves with pleasure.

To Mr. Adair, our adviser for four years, and to Miss Schofield, our adviser for one year, what can we say in appreciation for all their kindness and generosity. We leave our thanks, our gratitude, and our sincere promise to live up to all their great expectations.

We hereby dispose of our most worldly possessions.
